A Letter From Our Executive Director: Amanda Williams

There's no need to be scared– October is going to be spooktacular at Your Life! As the leaves begin to change and Halloween approaches, we're looking forward to filling the month with laughter, connection, and plenty of fun memories. From festive activities to sweet treats and a few tricks along the way, there's always something happening here!

Thank you to our wonderful residents, families, and team members for making Your Life such a special place to call home. Here's to a fang-tastic October!

Employee Spotlight:

We are thrilled to announce that Tangela Hightower is our Employee of the Month for this month! Tangela , who works as one of our exceptional Med Techs at the community, always goes above and beyond.
We are truly grateful to have Tangela as part of our team!

Help Our YourLife Family Grow!

The greatest compliment we can receive is a referral from someone who knows and trusts us. If you have friends, neighbors, or loved ones who may benefit from a caring, supportive memory care community, we would be honored to meet them.

We invite prospective families to schedule a personal tour, meet our dedicated team, and experience firsthand the warmth and compassion that make YourLife feel like home.
